MID-ATLANTIC REGIONAL GATHERING

The Sleeping Giant, originally mentioned by Billy Graham in 1975 isn't sleeping anymore! The Giant is wide-awake and they are arising to see a mighty move of God in our nation through Revival. We, in the Mid-Atlantic Region of Aglow International have chosen to arise with them in Unity, Prayer and Action as the Wells of Revival are being Reopened. As we honor God's principle of "first" in our First People, we will see a nation restored and a Revival that will be unstoppable. We believe that this revival has already started and is beginning to spread across our nation. We believe it will not cease until the return of Jesus Christ. Please don't miss this important opportunity to experience Revival with our guests. Chief Anne Richardson and Dr. Negiel Bigpond will take us deeper into the Reopening of the Wells.

Gwen Campbell, Aglow Mid-Atlantic Regional Director

SPECIAL GUESTS:

Our Regional Gathering will be unique this year. Instead of one featured guest, there will be multiple expressions of God's Word to us from anointed speakers. Our focus is on reopening the Wells of Revival as we honor our First People and see our nation restored.

Dr. Negiel Bigpond is a full-blood member of the Euchee (Yuchi) Indian Tribe. He has been sharing the gospel with the people of over 140 native reservations.

Chief Anne Richardson, Chief of the Rappahannock Tribe since 1998, the first woman Chief to lead a Tribe in Virginia since the 1700s.

WORSHIP: Terry and Barbi Franklin
It all started with a song. Terry & Barbi Franklin were asked to sing at a friend's wedding reception. That simple invitation began opening doors all over the world. Since 1985 they have ministered with the theme, "Inspiring Love in the Home & Revival in the Church" through their family worship events and marriage seminars that have taken them all across the U.S.A. and 40 nations worldwide.
